Sabaton's "Primo Victoria" brings you to the shores of Normandy and around the world as both war and song rage around you.

In this popular album, Sabaton explores the rise and fall of governments, as well as unspeakable horrors of war.

Sabaton delivers an album that sweeps fans off their feet as they tell of the lessons of war taught by Sun Tzu and learned by generals the world over.

Sabaton's "Coat of Arms" brings legends to light, as prominent soldiers and resistances alike are done justice for their service in the form of amazing music.

Always willing to fight to the end, Sabaton reveals "The Last Stand" in an attempt to revive the memory of some of history's more tragic tales of war and conflict.

As one of the deadliest wars in history, The Great War presents itself as one of Sabaton's greatest albums to date. telling tales of bloody battles, heroic triumphs, and the changing ways of warfare.

About the Band

Hailing from Falun, Sweden, Sabaton has been bringing the many epics of history to the center stage since 1999! Sabaton leaves no story unsung, as tales of heroism are spun for all to see, as history's most noble men and women are given the attention they deserve. Tales of rising evils, burning hopes, valiant defenders, and shining examples of human courage are all within Sabaton's domain, delivered to you one album at a time.

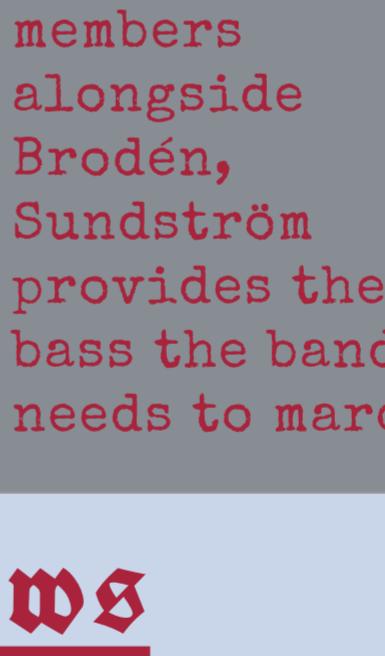

CHRIS RÖRLAND
A veteran member from Falun, Chris Rörland supports Johansson as the second lead guitar.

TOMMY JOHANSSON
A recent addition to the band, Tommy Johansson is right behind Brodén as a lead guitar, alongside Rörland.

JOAKIM BRODÉN
As the lead singer, Brodén acts as your guide with his recognizable baritone and vest.

PÄR SUNDSTRÖM
One of the founding members alongside Brodén, Sundström provides the bass the band needs to march.

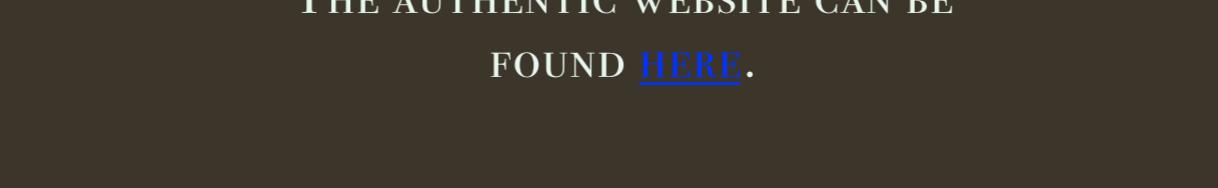

HANNES VAN DAHL
A standing member of the band, Dahl has been Sabaton's drummer since 2014.
